

Staying Safe Online

This activity is for you to do with your parent or family. What would you do in each of these situations? Talk about it with your mom/dad, and then color or circle the best choice.

Tip: Sometimes, you might choose 2 answers.

	You receive an email with an attachment from someone you don't know.		Someone you don't know asks you where you live.
<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete		<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete
	Your classmate sent you an email with a birthday party invitation attached.		You see something online that makes you feel uncomfortable.
<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete		<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete
	You receive an email inviting you to enter an art contest online.		You need to go online to do research for a school report.
<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete		<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete
<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete		<input type="checkbox"/> Tell a Parent <input type="checkbox"/> Save <input type="checkbox"/> Delete

Write your own safe ideas here.

Parent Tip
Use these examples as a conversation-starter with your child. Help them discover when to draw-the-line online, and write in your own suggestions together, too.